

RANDOLPH-MACON EASY FOR VARSITY

Ashland Basketball Team No Match for Husky Players of University of Virginia.

FINAL COUNT IS 32 TO 14

Victory Practically Gives Virginia College Basketball Championship of State.

Randolph-Macon's basketball team proved no match for the big five of the University of Virginia at the Horse Show Building last night, the final count being 32 to 14. The game was rather slow, but both teams showed occasional flashes of clever team work, and in the second half the varsity boys did some brilliant individual playing. About forty people were present.

The boys from Ashland started off at a rapid gait and for several minutes they played the Orange and Blue almost to a standstill. Ceil finally broke the ice with a shot from the field, and from that time on Virginia had everything its own way. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 6. Randolph-Macon getting but one field goal in the half.

Varsity Finishes Strong.

As usual Virginia played strong in the closing round and literally played the Ashland out of their feet. Hardin, Virginia's long-legged centre, was the star performer, getting four field goals. Once he secured the ball at the basket, he'd hit his head a second while a Randolph-Macon player leaped in the air in a vain endeavor to get to the leather, and then tossed it into the basket amid the laughter of the spectators.

Frequently on the toss up he would catch the ball in both hands and throw

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., February 16.—The victory of Virginia's relay team over the George Washington quartet at the indoor meet held at Convention Hall, in Washington, Saturday night, is the second leg for Virginia of the triangular relays for the Southern championship between Hopkins, Georgetown and Virginia. Virginia has still to beat Georgetown in Convention Hall, Washington, on March 6. This will undoubtedly be a hard race, as Rice and Slosser, of the Blue and Gray basketball squad, and several other good quarter-milers report to Coach Mulligan this week. Every effort will be made by Georgetown to reverse last season's defeat at the hands of Virginia.

At the Federal meet in Washington Saturday night the Virginia relay team runs the crack Pennsylvania team. The outcome of this race is extremely doubtful. Pennsylvania, as usual, has one of the fastest teams in the country, and Virginia will have her hands full to hold the speedy Quakers. Penn's four has already defeated Columbia.

Trainer Lannigan will send only a few men to the Federal meet Saturday night, outside of the relay team. The squad has been in hard training for the past two meets, and the man of work given the men will be cut, in order to save them for the big meet in Richmond on February 27. Virginia will endeavor to capture the all-round trophy at the Richmond meet, and in order to do so will take along a good sized squad.

Additional stock of costumes just arrived. Miss Gardner from Washington, D. C., came to display goods at 694 East Main, at J. E. Ender.

It to another Virginia player before the opponents could get to it. Ceil, May and Ashby also did some clever work in half. May tossing three goals from difficult angles.

Sesler, who replaced Reville in the closing half, starred for Randolph-Macon, and the total of four goals goes credited to his team. Ceil and Ashby covered well at guards and the Ashland forwards had but few opportunities to try at the basket.

Gives Virginia Championship.

This victory practically gave Virginia the college basketball championship of the State, it having defeated every college team except that of V. P. L. This is the first year that V. P. L. has had a team out in many years, and the five is not regarded as an aspirant for the championship honors. Washington and Lee, the only team that defeated Virginia, and Harding and May were not in that game. Later Virginia beat Washington and Lee at Charlottesville by an overwhelming score.

The varsity team will return to Charlottesville to-day. The game Monday night and the one last night did not draw many people, and Virginia lost heavily in the venture. How the teams lined up:

Virginia (52) Position. R. M. (11) May.....right forward....Buhman (Sargent)

Harding.....centre.....Smith Ceci.....right guard....Simpson (Althey)

Williams.....left guard....Carter (Ashby, May)

Summary: Goals from field—Harding, 5; May, 2; Ceil, 2; Cochran, 1; Sesler, 2; Smith, 2. Goals from foul—May, 6; Cochran, 1; Buhman, 1; Sesler, 1; DeFense, R. P. Hall, University of Virginia. Umpire: W. V. Reithard, Richmond. Young Men's Christian Association. Time of halves, twenty minutes.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT AT THE INSTITUTE

Excellent Material for Team, Although Several Former Stars Are Badly Missed.

LEXINGTON, VA., February 16.—Prospects of a successful baseball season at the Virginia Military Institute are extremely bright, in spite of the fact that there are five or last year's men who are not to be in school this year. These include DeVault, one of the best pitchers in the South Atlantic States; Pollock, elected captain at the close of last year's season, and others equally valuable.

The call for candidates has been issued by Captain Grammer, and has been effective in bringing out about seventy-five men. There are eight prospective slab artists from whom to choose a pitching staff, and Coach Krebs predicts bright futures for some of them.

Cadet D. R. McMillen, manager, has arranged the following schedule:

March 27—Fishburne, at Lexington.

April 3—Hampden-Sidney, at Lexington.

April 8—St. John's College, at Lexington.

April 10—Roanoke College, at Lexington.

April 12—V. P. L. at Roanoke.

April 17—Richmond College, at Lexington.

April 24—Open.

April 29—Davidson College, at Lexington.

May 5—Open.

May 12—Milligan College, at Lexington.

ASHEVILLE WINS.

Takes Fast Game From Knoxville Tiers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ASHVILLE, N. C., February 16.—In the fastest game of basketball ever seen here, the Young Men's Christian Association won from the Knoxville Tigers by the score of 35 to 21, on the association floor last night. The game was pronounced by some the hardest fought that has taken place in the South during the past season. Realizing what it had to go up against, the Young Men's Christian Association team has put in a great deal of strenuous training during the past two weeks, but for which victory would have been out of the question last night. The Knoxville team is composed of picked men from the University of Tennessee, the Knoxville Young Men's Christian Association, and the National Guardsmen, who have been training for the past two weeks, but for which victory would have been out of the question last night.
